

We all experience times when we need a little help with life's challenges. Your employer understands this and is providing the HorizonCare™ employee assistance program (EAP) to offer support, guidance and resources to help you and your family resolve personal issues.

What can the HorizonCare™ programs do for me?

A master's level Member Advocate from Horizon Health EAP Services will confidentially consult with you over the telephone and help you find solutions and resources to meet life's challenges. The Member Advocate will provide you with consultation, resources, an action plan and information to help you address your issue. You may also receive referrals to support groups, community resources, a Horizon network counselor or your health plan.

HorizonCare™ services can help with the following issues, among others:

- Child care and elder care
- Alcohol and drug abuse
- Life improvement
- Difficulties in relationships
- Stress and anxiety with work or family
- Depression
- Personal achievement
- Emotional well-being
- Financial and legal concerns
- Grief and loss

Is it confidential?

Your calls and all counseling services are completely confidential. Information will be released only with your permission or as required by law.

When is it available?

Telephone consultation and online access to EAP services are always available. Simply call the toll-free number or logon to www.horizoneap.com. In emergency situations, you may call the toll-free number to speak with a licensed staff counselor who can also connect you to emergency services.

Your program also includes up to three face-to-face assessment and counseling sessions. We will work with you to schedule appointments according to your needs.

What can WorkLife services do for me?

WorkLife services can save you countless hours by researching and providing referrals for important issues such as:

- Child and eldercare
- Education
- Adoption
- Pet care
- Daily living
- Travel

A broad range of educational materials and guide books on dependent care topics is also available.

How much does it cost?

The HorizonCare™ program is paid for by your employer. If you accept a referral to services that are not a part of your HorizonCare™ program, you may be responsible for the costs associated with those services.
